

And the winners are...

Celebrating accessibility...

This year, the City of Winnipeg's Access Advisory Committee received 23 nominations that incorporate universal design principles and address accessibility issues as a key component of their recently completed projects.

The awards jury has concluded all of the site tours and evaluations and is pleased to present awards to 14 excellent projects this year.

Save the date!

You have to go to be in the know...

Award winners will be publicly announced at the City of Winnipeg Access Awards Reception to be held on Thursday, November 9, 2017, from 4:00pm - 6:30pm at the Manitoba Museum's newly completed Alloway Hall.

The event includes a free wine and small bites reception, live entertainment, hot hors d'oeuvres, cash bar, special guest speaker, and of course the announcement of the 2017 Access Awards.

RSVP required for this FREE event!

Venue seating is limited, so early RSVP is recommended. This free event is brought to by the City of Winnipeg Access Advisory Committee, in partnership with the Rick Hansen Foundation and Canada 150 Barrier Buster Program.

To RSVP and reserve your seats contact:

Chris Sobkowicz

Coordinator, Access Advisory Committee

csobkowicz@winnipeg.ca

Phone: (204) 986-8345

TTY: (204) 986-1311

SUPPORTED BY

